CONFULL SECRET
CONTROL
U.S. OFFICIALS ONLY

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE GROUP

1. Opposite the Finnish frontier, there are three main Russian military headquarters, viz., Murmansk, Soroka (6/6 30' N, 35° E), and Petrozavodak. There is a smaller headquarters at Suoyary (6/2° IS N, 32° 30' E). It is estimated that the number of officers at the Harmansk, Soroka, and Petrozavodak headquarters is sufficient to staff eight to ten divisions. There are very few arms soldiers to be seen near these headquarters, but there are siscable erms and summinition dumps. The officers carry out frequent recommaissance and topographical trips towards the west. 2. In the summer of 1946, there were artillery troops at Perkary, motorized troops at Enso and Yurteila, and two battalions of heavy tanks (30 tanks) at Implyarvi. Comment: All points unidentified.				es v Chaladad Ale	NCE REPORT			50X1-HU
DIST. 25 March 1947 PAGES SUPPLEMENT 1. Opposite the Pinnich frontier, there are three main Russian military headquarters, viz., Murmansk, Soroka (64° 30° N, 35° E), and Petrozavodsk. There is a smaller headquarters at Suppard (62° 15′ N, 32° 30′ E). It is estimated that the number of officers at the Murmansk, Soroka, and Petrozavodsk headquarters is sufficient to staff sight to ten divinions. There are very few armed soldiers to be seen near these headquarters, but there are siscable arms and ammunition dumps. The officers carry out frequent recommaissance and topographical trips towards the west. 2. In the summer of 1946, there were artillery troops at Perkarvi, motorized troops at Emso and Vartsila, and two bettalions of heavy tanks (30 tenks) at Impiyarvi. Comment: All points unidentified. Comment: Possibly Sokolowers at 66° 30′ N, 31° E.) It 50X1-H thought that the Landing area was being herdened and leveled. 4. On the Karelian Isthmas, there is no military activity and no headquarters have been located. There are no troops spart from frontier guards. 5. Fifty to sixty thousand prisoners (military and civilian) are at work on the railway licking harmansk and Arkhangelsk. Many of the Russian prisoners "liberated" from FW camps are employed in this work. 6. During the autumn of 1946. Dreament: Possibly Ukhta, 65° N, 31° E.) Document: Possibly Ukhta, 65° N, 31° E.) Document: Possibly Ukhta, 65° N, 31° E.) Document: Possibly Ukhta, 65° N, 31° E.) SOX1-H Document No. Document No	OUNTRY	USSR (Ko	la Peninsula	and Karelia)
1. Opposite the Finnich frontier, there are three main Russian military headquarters, viz., Murmansk, Soroka (66° 30' N, 35° E), and Petrozavodak. There is a smaller headquarters at Suyarvi (62° 15' N, 32° 30' E). It is estimated that the number of officers at the Manansk, Soroka, and Petrozavodak headquarters is sufficient to staff eight to ten divisions. There are very few arway soldiers to be seen near these headquarters, but there are siseable arms and ammunition dumps. The officers carry out frequent reconnaissance and topographical trips towards the west. 2. In the summer of 1946, there were artillery troops at Perkarvi, motorized troops at Enso and Vartsila, and two battalions of heavy tanks (30 tenks) at Impiyarvi. Comment: All points unidentified.) 3. During the sammar of 1946, work was in progress on an afficial at Kiviniemi, near Sakkola. Comment: Possibly Sokolozero at 66° 30' N, 31° E.) It 50X1-H thought that the landing area was being herdened and leveled. 4. On the Karelian Lathmas, there is no military activity and no headquarters have been located. There are no troops apart from frontier guards. 5. Fifty to sixty thousand prisoners (military activity and no headquarters have been located. There are no troops apart from frontier guards. 5. Fifty to sixty thousand prisoners (military activity and no headquarters have been located. There are no troops apart from frontier guards. 6. During the autann of 1946 urgent work was in progress on the roads in the Unitar-Kiestinki area. Comment: Possibly Ukhta, 65° N, 31° E.) Document No.	UBJECT	Notes on Work o	Military Fo n Roads and	orces Opposite Railroads	Finnish Frontier	PAGES	25 March 19	947
1. Opposite the Finnish frontier, there are three main Russian military headquarters, viz., Murmansk, Soroka (64° 30' N, 35° E), and Petrozavodsk. There is a smaller headquarters at Suoyarvi (62° 15' M, 32° 30' E). It is estimated that the number of officers at the Murmansk, Soroka, and Petrozavodsk headquarters is sufficient to staff eight to ten divisions. There are very few armed soldiers to be seen near these headquarters, but there are sizeable arms and ammunition dumps. The officers carry out frequent reconnaissance and topographical trips towards the west. 2. In the summer of 1946, there were artillery troops at Perkarvi, motorized troops at Enso and Vertsila, and two battalions of heavy tanke (30 tanks) at Implyarvi. Comment: All points anidentified.) During the summer of 1946, work was in progress on an airfield at Kiviniemi, near Sakkola. Comment: Possibly Sckolozero at 66° 30' N, 31° E.) It 50X1-H thought that the landing area was being hardened and leveled. 4. On the Kurelian Isthmas, there is no military activity and no headquarters have been located. There are no troops spart from frontier guards. 5. Fifty to sixty thousand prisoners (military and civilian) are at work on the railway linking Eurmansk and Arkhangelsk. Many of the Russian prisoners "liberated" from FW camps are employed in this work. SOX1-H Document No.						JOHFLEN	· ·	50X1-HU
1. Opposite the Finnish frontier, there are three main Russian military headquarters, viz., Marmansk, Soroka (640° 30' N, 35° E), and Petrozavodsk. There is a smaller headquarters at Suoyarvi (620° 15' N, 320° 30' E). It is estimated that the number of officers at the Marmansk, Soroka and Petrozavodsk headquarters is sufficient to staff eight to ten divisions. There are very few armed soldiers to be seen near these headquarters, but there are sizeable arms and ammunition dumps. The officers carry out frequent reconnaissance and topographical trips towards the west. 2. In the summer of 1946, there were artillery troops at Perkarvi, motorized troops at Enas and Verteila, and two battalions of heavy tanks (30 tanks) at Implyarvi. Comment: All points unidentified.) 3. During the summer of 1946, work was in progress on an airfield at Kiviniemi, near Sakkola. Comment: Possibly Sokolozero at 66° 30' N, 31° E.) It 50X1-H thought that the landing area was being hardened and leveled. 4. On the Karelian Isthmas, there is no military activity and no headquarters have been located. There are no troops spart from frontier guards. 5. Fifty to sixty thousand prisoners (military and civilian) are at work on the railway linking Marmansk and Arkhangelsk. Many of the Russian prisoners "liberated" from FW camps are employed in this work. 6. During the autumn of 1946, urgent work was in progress on the roads in the Untua-Kiestinki area. Comment: Possibly Ukhta, 65° N, 31° E.) Document No. DOC CHARCE in Cleas. DOA FEG. APP 77 Auth: DOA FEG. 77/1733 DOA FEG. 77/1739
1. Opposite the Finnish frontier, there are three main Russian military headquarters, viz., Nurmansk, Soroka (64° 30' N, 35° E), and Petrozavodsk. There is a smaller headquarters at Suoyary (62° 15' H, 32° 30' E). It is estimated that the number of officers at the Maransk, Soroka, and Potrozavodsk headquarters is sufficient to staff eight to ten divisions. There are very few armed soldiers to be seen near these headquarters, but there are sizeable arms and ammunition dumps. The officers carry out frequent recommaissance and topographical trips towards the west. 2. In the summer of 1946, there were artillery troops at Perkarvi, motorized troops at Enso and Vertsila, and two battalions of heavy tanks (30 tanks) at Implyarvi. Comment: All points unidentified.) 3. During the summer of 1946, work was in progress on an airfield at Kiviniemi, near Sakkola. Comment: Possibly Sokolozero at 66° 30' N, 31° E.) It 50X1-H thought that the landing area was being hardened and leveled. 4. On the Karelian Isthmas, there is no military activity and no headquarters have been located. There are no troops spart from frontier guards. 5. Fifty to sixty thousand prisoners (military and civilian) are at work on the railway linking Hurmansk and Arkhengelsk. Many of the Russian prisoners "liberated" from PW camps 6. During the autumn of 1946, urgent work was in progress on the roads in the Untua-Kiestinki area. Document No. DOCUMENT NO.	STRIBUTIO viz., Murmansk, Soroka (64° 30' N, 35° E), and Petrozavodak. There is a smaller headquarters at Suoyarvi (62° 15' N, 32° 30' E). It is estimated that the number of officers at the Murmansk, Soroka, and Petrozavodak headquarters is sufficient to staff eight to ten divisions. There are very few arms soldiers to be seen near these headquarters, but there are sizeable arms and ammunition dumps. The officers carry out frequent reconnaissance and topographical trips towards the west. 2. In the summer of 1946, there were artillevy troops at Perkarvi, motorized troops at Enso and Vartsila, and two battalions of heavy tanks (30 tanks) at Impirarvi. Comment: All points unidentified.)	STATE		VY JUSTICE
viz., Murmansk, Soroka (64° 30' N, 35° E), and Petrozavodak. There is a smaller headquarters at Suoyarvi (62° 15' N, 32° 30' E). It is estimated that the number of officers at the Murmansk, Soroka, and Petrozavodak headquarters is sufficient to staff eight to ten divisions. There are very few arms soldiers to be seen near these headquarters, but there are sizeable arms and ammunition dumps. The officers carry out frequent reconnaissance and topographical trips towards the west. 2. In the summer of 1946, there were artillevy troops at Perkarvi, motorized troops at Enso and Vartsila, and two battalions of heavy tanks (30 tanks) at Impirarvi. Comment: All points unidentified.)		Ommo-44	**************************************		*
3. During the sammar of 1945, work was in progress on an airfield at Kivinlemi, near Sakkola. Comment: Possibly Sckolozero at 66° 30' N, 31° E.) It :50X1-H thought that the landing area was being herdened and leveled. 4. On the Karelian Isthmas, there is no military activity and no headquarters have been located. There are no troops apart from frontier guards. 5. Fifty to sixty thousand prisoners (military and civilian) are at work on the railway linking larmansk and Arkhangelsk. Many of the Russian prisoners "liberated" from PW camps are employed in this work. 6. During the authors of 1946 urgent work was in progress on the roads in the Untuakiestinki area. Comment: Possibly Ukhta, 65° N, 31° E.)	2.	to staff near thes officers west. In the si	eight to te se headquart carry out f ummer of 194 and Varteila	n divisions. ers, but there requent recom 6, there were , and two bati	There are very is are sizeable are sizeable and top artillery troops talions of heavy	Tew armed rms and am cographics at Perks	soldiers to munition duz al trips towa	be seen ps. The rds the ed troops implyarvi.
been located. There are no troops spart from frontier guards. 5. Fifty to sixty thousand prisoners (military and civilian) are at work on the railway linking Marmansk and Arkhangelsk. Many of the Russian prisoners "liberated" from PW camps are employed in this work. 6. During the autumn of 19A6 urgent work was in progress on the roads in the Uhtua-Kiestinki area. Comment: Possibly Ukhta, 65° N, 31° E.) Document No. NO CHANCE in Class. [] DECLASSIXUD Class. CHANCED TO: TS S C DDA More, A Apr 77 Auth: DDA FEG. 77/1763 Date: O60478 By: 50X1-HI	3.	Sakkola,	ne surmar of	1946, work wa	as in progress or ssibly Sckolozero	at 660 3	30' N. 31° E.	iemi. near railway linking Marmansk and Arkhangelsk. Many of the Russian prisoners "liberated" from PW camps are employed in this work. 6. During the autumn of 19AA urgent work was in progress on the roads in the Untua- Kiestinki area. Comment: Possibly Ukhta, 65° N, 31° E.) Document No. NO CHANCE in Class. DECLASSIFUED Class. CHARGED TO: TS S C DDA Moss. A Apr 77 Auth: DDA REG. 77/1763 Date: O60478 By: 50X1-HI	4.	On the Ke	ırelian Kəth Itad. There	mas, there is are no troops	no military acti s apart from from	vity and tier guar	no headquart ds.	ers have
Comment: Possibly Ukhta, 65° N, 31° E.) Document No. NO CHANGE in Class. DECLASSITUD Class. CHANGED NO. TS S C DDA Monta, 6 Apr 77 Auth: DDA Rid. 77/1763 Date: O60478 By: 50X1-Hi	5∙	railway 1	Linking Murm	ansk and Arkha	engelsk. Many of	the Russ	ian prisoner	n the s 50X1-HUN
NO CHANCE in Class. DECLASSITUD Class. CHARGED TO: TS S DDA Mono, A App 77 Auth: DDA File. 77/1763 Date: O60478 By: 50X1-HI	6.	During th Kiestinki	e autum of area.	19/4 urgent Comme	work was in progent: Possibly Ukh	ress on t	the roads in	the Uhtua- 50X1-HUI
NO CHANCE in Class. DECLASSITUD Class. CHARGED TO: TS S DDA Mono, A App 77 Auth: DDA File. 77/1763 Date: O60478 By: 50X1-HI					,	ı
DDA Mode, A Apr 77 Auth: DDA REG. 77/1763 Date: 060478 By: 50X1-H					NO CHANCE in C	D	s (6)
50X1-HU			. Ou	WEIGHTEN	DDA Mon Auth: DDA REG	o, 4 Apr . 77/1763	77	50X1-HU I
			UU	mu nanana la				50X1-HUN

Declassified in Part - Sanitized Copy Approved for Release 2012/01/03: CIA-RDP82-00457R000400520002-2